

The opening of the "Passion Play" at Oberammergau. One of the outstanding scenes of the beautiful and historic spectacle. Anton Lang, much changed since his last appearance, as the Christus before Pilate. The "Passion Play" has drawn greater crowds this year than at any time in its history.
New York Herald Foreign Photos.

The new German Ambassador to the United States, photographed upon his arrival in New York on the steamship America, May 13, Dr. Otto Wiedfeldt.
International.

Another of the beautiful scenes from this year's "Passion Play." Anton Lang, with the crook, as Christus.
New York Herald Foreign Photos.

The Prince of Wales driving off from the first tee in the match against the Crown Prince of Japan at the Tokio Golf Club.
Central News.

A pretty carpenter with a famous name—Miss Muriel Vanderbilt erecting one of the booths at the Park Avenue Street Fair for the benefit of crippled children.
Keystone.

The Cornell varsity crew, which met Yale and Princeton at Derby, Conn., yesterday and which will meet Harvard on Lake Cayuga next Saturday. Left to right: Bow, C. F. Kells; F. C. Baldwin, C. N. Strong, H. E. Luhrs, W. L. Hearn, E. V. Baker, A. G. Baldwin, M. W. Fillius, stroke; B. J. Nicholson, coxswain.
International.

Gen. Pershing receiving a degree, LL. D., from McGill University in Canada. Gen. Pershing, in his new robes, is at the left. In the center is Gen. Sir Arthur Currie, Commander in Chief of the Canadian forces during the war and now president of McGill. At the right is Col. R. R. Thompson, marshal of the ceremonies in honor of Gen. Pershing.